

Applications are invited for Volunteer Peer Mentor

An exciting voluntary opportunity is available to work alongside Community Trainers to support in the delivery of mental health and wellbeing recovery courses.

Would you like to gain invaluable work experience, use your own lived experience to help make a difference, receive quality training, develop new skills, and feel valued and part of a team?

Applicants must be able to commit to:

Attend volunteer induction day at Harrison House in Threemilestone, Truro, on 2nd Dec 2025

Work a minimum of 3-4 hours (one course) per week to a maximum of 15 hours per week

Co-facilitate courses for up to 9 months

Applicants must be 18 years or older; this is due to direct interaction with vulnerable individuals and reflects the minimum age of learners on Recovery College courses

Applicants must have attended a Recovery College course to have an understanding of course delivery.

Please contact the Recovery College if you would like to attend a course www.pentreath.co.uk/recovery-college-cornwall/ or call 01872 308909

Several voluntary placements available as courses are delivered in multiple locations across Cornwall.

Offers of a volunteering placement are conditional upon receipt of two satisfactory references and completion of an Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check.
